

Life Is A Joke

© 2005 Matthieu Brandt

If you see me hangin' with a cardboard sign
Playin' my guitar for a bottle of wine
It's better than a 9 to 5
Don't have to listen to somebody else's jive

I'll live of nothing but my dreams so bright
Of havin' my name up there in lights
But I'm no pro, I just clown around
'Cause you see, that's what I found

To take life serious is just a joke
That can only work for the common folk
'Cause there's no reason or rhyme
To our limited time

Here on this God forsaken earth
And for whatever its worth
I'll do my song and dance with a smile
And forget about my sorrow for a while

Curiosity will fuel my drive
Cause I'm doomed to seek the new in life
And throw away what I already know
Let the music take me where it wants to go

Don't have the balls to hit the road
But I'm strong enough for the heavy load

And if you think I'm joking
You might be right
I'll always bet the house
I won't bargain away my life

What I do, don't give it a name
Can't keep me hostage in your brain
I am what I am and I do what I do
I can only hope
You do the same thing too
